

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

REPRODUCED FROM THE HOLDINGS OF THE
TEXAS STATE ARCHIVES

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

I disapprove, and am vetoing and filing with the Secretary of State Senate Bill 369 relating to public opinion polls. First of all, the Bill is discriminatory in that it is not applicable to all who conduct such polls. Moreover, such a bill as this would make possible and encourage lawsuits by disgruntled candidates and it authorizes results so harsh as to virtually eliminate all independent poll taking as opposed to regulating them.

Senate Bill 369 was received in the Governor's Office less than ten (10) days prior to the adjournment of the Regular Session of the Fifty-eighth Legislature, and in accordance with Article IV Section 14 of the Constitution of Texas, the Bill, together with this Proclamation, is filed with the Secretary of State.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the seal of State to be affixed hereunto at Austin this 10th day of June, 1963.

John Connally
Governor of Texas
